P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, the members of the South Dakota Corrections Association see that there is a need in society to serve mankind, to safeguard lives and property, and to respect the Constitutional rights of all men to liberty, equality, and justice; and

WHEREAS, the members of the South Dakota Corrections Association have chosen to serve mankind by diligently working to help the offender (Juvenile and Adult) to realize a fuller potential as a dutiful citizen who can productively work and live; and

WHEREAS, the members of the South Dakota Corrections Association are aware that failures attract more attention than successes, they still hold that such service is vital, successful, helpful, and productive for society; and

WHEREAS, the members of the South Dakota Corrections Association recognize their office as a symbol of public faith, and public trust to be held in high esteem; and

WHEREAS, the member of the South Dakota Corrections Association recognize that it is their duty to achieve the objectives and ideals of correctional work by dedication to mankind, and by striving to become knowledgeable in the necessary tools, new and old, that will aid them in the fulfillment of their duty:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, with the South Dakota Corrections Association, proclaim the week of August 23 - 27, 1971 as

CORRECTIONAL WEEK

During this week, correctional workers from throughout the State will diligently apply themselves to the task of bettering their skills and tools in serving the offender, and invite the citizens of the State of South Dakota to open their hearts and understanding to the offenders' needs so that they, too, can become a part of the fundamental duty of serving mankind by helping in some way in the restoration of man as a good citizen of the land.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 3rd day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-one.

Richard F. Kneip
